MEMORANDUM FOR Garrison Commander, National Guard Training Center, Fort Indiantown Gap, Annville, Pennsylvania 17003-5002

SUBJECT: Request to memorialize OP13 in name of LTC Michael McLaughlin

1. This memorandum is a proposal to name Building OP13, located on Fort Indiantown Gap, in honor of LTC Michael McLaughlin.

2. Biographical Sketch attached for your reference.

3. LTC McLaughlin's outstanding achievements include award of the Silver Star, Bronze Star and Purple Heart during Operation Iraqi Freedom. LTC McLaughlin was the leader engagement officer for 2nd Brigade, 28th Infantry Division and was killed in action during an Iraqi Police recruiting event at the glass factory in Ramadi on 5 January 2005. LTC McLaughlin was a field artillery officer who spent many years in the 107th FA BN and 2nd Brigade, 28ID. He was responsible for forming and training a fire support element at Camp Shelby, MS prior to 2nd BDE's deployment to Iraq. This FSE was made up of various fire support Soldiers from many different states who never worked together before arriving at Camp Shelby.

4. If approved, the name of OP13 will change to "OP13, LTC Michael McLaughlin Observation Post"

5. Rational/Recommended Citation:
LTC Michael McLaughlin distinguished himself as a leader during 2nd Brigade, 28th Infantry Division's mobilization in January 2005 and subsequent deployment to Ramadi, Iraq in June 2005. LTC McLaughlin was instrumental in training the Fire Support Element that supported the maneuver units within the Brigade during the post-mobilization training period from January through May 2005 at Camp Shelby, MS and Fort Irwin, CA. Upon arriving in Iraq, LTC McLaughlin's primary duty was to work as the non-lethal effects and leader engagement officer for the Brigade. LTC McLaughlin worked tirelessly with Iraqi provincial government leaders in Al Anbar Province and with sheiks in the 2nd BDE Area of Operations. Over 805 of voters, voted in the elections in Ramadi in October 2005, up from less than 5% the previous January. He was also the force behind the thousands of "Sons of Ramadi" who volunteered to join the Iraqi police in the autumn of 2005. LTC McLaughlin was killed in action by a suicide bomber at an Iraqi Police recruiting event at the Glass Factory in Ramadi, Iraq on 5 January 2006, while leading from the front and engaging the young men of Ramadi. LTC Michael McLaughlin's leadership, enthusiasm, optimism, and commitment to duty should be an inspiration for all future generations of Soldiers.
