Total Economic Impact:

Disclaimer: This Economic Impact Report is a best estimate based on expenditures by the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs within the Federal Fiscal Year (FY) identified. The economic multiplier applied and identified in note five below has been consistently used by this agency to estimate its Economic Impact on the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania since FY 2007.

NOTES:

- Assigned to units and facilities in each city as of September 30, 2016. The Active Guard Reserve Service Members are included in this number
- Includes federal and civilian employees (as of September 30, 2016); state complement reflects permanent and temporary salary and wage positions on both the federal and state complement (as of September 30, 2016); full-time military technicians and Active Guard/Reserve (as of September 30, 2016).
- Obligations allocated to Guard units in each city for federal fiscal year 2016 (ended September 30, 2016); for veterans' homes, includes payments from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (for the state fiscal year ended June 30, 2016)
- For the state fiscal year ended June 30, 2016; for veterans homes, includes non-appropriated funds such as residential fees and proceeds from estates and other private source
- Economic impact calculated at 1.68 times total expenditures. This economic impact multiplier derives from the Economic Impact of Military Installations used in the 2005 BRAC report
- Pennsylvania Air National Guard facility.
- Army National Guard Field Maintenance Facility (FMS) or Combined Support Maintenance Shop (CSMS)
- Includes Recruiting and Retention office and personnel
- The economic impact multiplier for these line items can not be applied because we lack sufficient information to estimate the indirect impacts of grant (EAP and other) programs
- Scotland School for Veterans' Children closed June 2009. Expenditures for this location are associated with arbitration/litigation expenses
- Federally funded State Expenditures are from the Office of Administration and shown for information only: They are not added to the total expenditure:
