Veterans' Trust Fund

- Draft Notice about Maintenance and Use of Veterans' Trust Fund reviewed by State Veterans' Commission at February 2013 meeting.
- Notice is now prepared as "Statement of Policy"
- A draft has been handed out to the members at June meeting.

Veterans' Trust Fund

- Substantive provisions largely unchanged since February except for Veterans in Need of Temporary Assistance.
- In earlier draft, this subject was to be handled by a grant agreement with the Pennsylvania Veterans Foundation.
- In current draft, payments to veterans in need will be made directly from Veterans' Trust Fund.

Veterans in Need of Assistance

- Veterans in Need of Temporary Assistance is designed to supplant unfunded Veterans Emergency Assistance Program
  - Provides clarification of eligibility
    - Necessities of living
    - Income replacement
    - Increased costs to replace necessities of living
  - Provides statewide standard payments based on demonstrated need
  - Provides payments for up to 4 months

Disabled Veterans' Real Estate Tax Exemption Program

- At its April meeting, the State Veterans' Commission approved new standards for applying the rebuttable presumption of need.
- There is currently a rebuttable presumption of need if the applicant's income is $85,168 or less.
- New standards are to take effect July 1.
- DMVA has received legislative request that the Commission reconsider the new standards and delay effective date.
